CIVIL ACTION NO. _____

ORIGINAL COMPLAINT

For 11 years, I worked for ExxonMobil with an impeccable record. I had no complaints and my manager, Timothy Hollingsworth told me I was in the A-performers category just one week before I submitted a formal complaint and request for transfer and 5 months after my first report to him of a violation.

Within days, I was deemed unfit and put on disability for 3 months with no discussion about my complaint about racial remarks, excessive bullying & workplace harassment, mobbing, and other forms of psychological violence. I was promised that I would not be retaliated against because of my complaint, but I was.

After 3 months of humiliation, psychological testing, and a clearance from 2 therapists to return to work, I was denied work modifications and then bullied and retaliated against because of my request for sufficient time to prepare myself for a successful return.

My religious rights were violated when I refused to see a psychiatrist which was retaliation and a way to constructively terminate me, which ended up happening.

To add insult to injury, ExxonMobil reported to Texas Workforce Commission that I quit, delaying my unemployment for weeks, causing additional emotional distress and mental anguish.

Civil Action No.

NOTICE OF A LAWSUIT AND REQUEST TO WAIVE SERVICE OF A SUMMONS

To: _____

(Name of the defendant or - if the defendant is a corporation, partnership, or association - an officer or agent authorized to receive service)

Why are you getting this?

A lawsuit has been filed against you, or the entity you represent, in this court under the number shown above. A copy of the complaint is attached.

This is not a summons, or an official notice from the court. It is a request that, to avoid expenses, you waive formal service of a summons by signing and returning the enclosed waiver. To avoid these expenses, you must return the signed waiver within _____ days (give at least 30 days, or at least 60 days if the defendant is outside any judicial district of the United States) from the date shown below, which is the date this notice was sent. Two copies of the waiver form are enclosed, along with a stamped, self-addressed envelope or other prepaid means for returning one copy. You may keep the other copy.

What happens next?

If you return the signed waiver, I will file it with the court. The action will then proceed as if you had been served on the date the waiver is filed, but no summons will be served on you and you will have 60 days from the date this notice is sent (see the date below) to answer the complaint (or 90 days if this notice is sent to you outside any judicial district of the United States).

If you do not return the signed waiver within the time indicated, I will arrange to have the summons and complaint served on you. And I will ask the court to require you, or the entity you represent, to pay the expenses of making service.

Please read the enclosed statement about the duty to avoid unnecessary expenses.

I certify that this request is being sent to you on the date below.
